Support for 3903's Bargaining

The Executive Committee at The University of Toronto Graduate Students' Union (UTGSU) stand in solidarity with CUPE 3903 and their bargaining platform as they fight to protect the rights of Teaching Assistants, Contract Faculty, and Graduate Assistants at York University.

Labour unions at large institutions such as the University of Toronto and York University are critical in ensuring that workers are treated fairly, that their rights are protected, that hiring practices are equitable, and that working conditions are safe and inclusive for all.

In support of CUPE 3903 and its Members, CUPE 3902's Flying Squad has organized paid trips to York University to stand on the picket lines on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Interested parties are encouraged to contact CUPE 3902 at www.facebook.com/FlyingSquad3902 for more details regarding meeting times and locations.

In Solidarity,

The UTGSU Executive Committee
